Dear Birthmother,

We welcome you into the story of our lives as you consider adoption for your child. Thank you for considering our family to be part of your child's adoption plan. We are praying for you and your child as you navigate the best choice for your unique circumstance. You are loved, and your child is loved. God knows every small and large detail of you and your child's story, and we encourage you as you possibly seek out placing your child for adoption that you would experience great peace that comes from God who loves and cares for you deeply. Our family is no stranger to adoption - Peter was adopted as an infant (his younger brother too!) and we are excited to now be growing our family thru adoption as well! We have not been given the gift of biological children, and we know God has clearly been directing our steps to adoption as a continuation of our family's story. Adoption will always be part of our family and we know that if you choose adoption to be part of your child's story, the Lord will guide you and be near to you thru each courageous step. We are grateful for your courage in choosing life for your child and you will always be covered in prayer by us. Should you choose to place your child in our home, they will always be surrounded with love, laughter & joy as their individual and unique story unfolds.

With Love & Deep Gratitude,
Peter & Kelly Jo

Our Story...

We met online in March of 2018 and it wasn't long after that we discovered we wanted to spend the rest of our lives together. Peter was charmed by my smile and I was smitten with his easy-going confidence and loving personality. We were married a few months later in January of 2019. Many would say we married quite quickly. But, we knew that God had directed our paths together and we couldn't wait to spend our lives walking thru life hand in hand. We are committed to faithfully loving each other and have been so thankful that God in His grace has brought us together.

And above all these put on love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony. Colossians 3:14

A note about Peter

Peter is a caring protector and faithful provider. He is extremely loyal and loves his family with all his heart. He works hard and always seeks to do the right thing, even when it is hard. Peter is extremely kindhearted and treats others with love & respect. Peter loves the Lord and seeks to follow Him daily. He will tell you that next to being adopted by his parents, the most important day of his life was knowing Jesus as his Savior! He leads our family with integrity and brings a steady calming presence to our home. He is always up for a good time, loves to plan activities and keeps in touch with those who are important to him. I am excited to see him grow and mature into fatherhood as I know he will faithfully love, protect and cherish whoever comes into our home.

Hello, I'm Peter

Hello there, I'm Peter! Almost 35 years ago, I was brought to my parents at 3 months old, just a few days before Christmas. Christmas is my favorite Holiday as it always marks the joyful celebration of my adoption into my parent's life and a reminder of the Joyous season of Christ's birth. I am bi-racial with both Hispanic and Black heritage. I love singing, playing my guitar and studied worship leading ministry in college. I tend to break out in song in the shower, while driving my truck or by serenading my wife and pets. I enjoy working with my hands and leading others to excel in the workplace.

I am a huge sports fan and enjoyed playing hockey, basketball and baseball as a young child. I have a very fond memory of watching basketball into the wee hours of the night with my mom when I was only a few years old. That love of watching the game has never stopped and still keeps me up in the wee hours of the night!

I love giving my pets kisses on their noses and telling them stories. I am an avid outdoorsman and enjoy long hours in the woods tracking down deer just as I learned from my father and grandfather.

I am very outgoing and make sure to call at least one of my friends or family members each day.

Adoption has forever changed my life in the best way possible and I am excited and grateful for the opportunity the Lord is giving to me to become a father thru adoption as well. I consider it a great privilege to be able to raise and protect a child as someone who has navigated thru life as an adoptee. What an honor to help a child walk thru the ins and outs of adoption from first hand experience!

A note about Kelly Jo

My wife is a caring woman who strives to love the Lord with all her heart, soul & mind. She is my biggest supporter and teammate. I can always count on her!
Her strengths compliment me greatly and she fills our home with her contagious smile, laughter and attempts at being funny. She is a thoughtful communicator and diligently works hard for the benefit of our family and home.
She makes our home a place of rest and refuge after a long day of work. She is a great cook and is frequently trying new recipes! Every night she ensures my lunch is packed, the coffee is ready to brew and my work clothes are ready for the next day.
She loves spending time with our extended family members and enjoys hosting them in our home. She is always open to spontaneous trips and activities. She gets very excited about plants, the outdoors, bird watching or relaxing at the beach. She loves reading and knowing God's word and faithfully prays for me and our family. She has always wanted to be a mother as long as I have known her and I know she will be great at it!

Hello, I'm Kelly Jo

Thank you for taking a little time to get to know me! I am 35 years old, and love having a Summer birthday. I was raised on a family farm as the 2nd (1st daughter) of 6 children.

I love the simple things in life - the warmth of the sun on my skin, a cozy hug, a clean home, a warm cup of tea, or a kind word from a friend. And I enjoy sharing these simple joys with others over shared meals, engaging conversations, a big smile and a calming presence. I enjoy taking walks around my neighborhood, visiting parks, snuggling with my pets, reading a good book, and dipping my toes in the ocean.

I work a full-time office job in real estate & finance from home and have the privilege of a flexible schedule which allows me to care for my home and family while I work. My first job as a teenager was a babysitter and I grew to love helping little ones learn and explore life thru play and experiences. As a child, dressing up and playing "mom" was a common occurrence as being a mother has been one of my greatest desires since a young child. That desire has never changed over the years, and I eagerly anticipate opening my home and my arms to the joy of raising a child with Peter. The one thing that I have learned to lean on thru infertility and our journey to adoption - is that God is the author of families. I can look at any moment to my husband, my brother-in-law, and my in-laws and instantly see the living testimony of God at work in the building of a family thru adoption. What a joy and a privilege to be on this journey as God prepares my heart to become a dear child's mother.

Our life Together

We love to go on adventures together! You will find us attending local sporting events in our hometown - baseball, hockey and basketball. During the week our evenings are typically spent having dinner together at home, taking our dog for a sunset family walk around the neighborhood or beach, watching a favorite show or movie and calling family members to catch up over the phone.

On our weekends, we like to go out and make new memories, often trying new activities and finding cool local spots to explore. we usually try a new coffee, pastry or ice cream shop, have dinner or lunch out at one of the many restaurants in our city, take strolls thru local parks and historical sites, spend the afternoon at the beach or explore our quaint downtown art galleries, museums & shops.

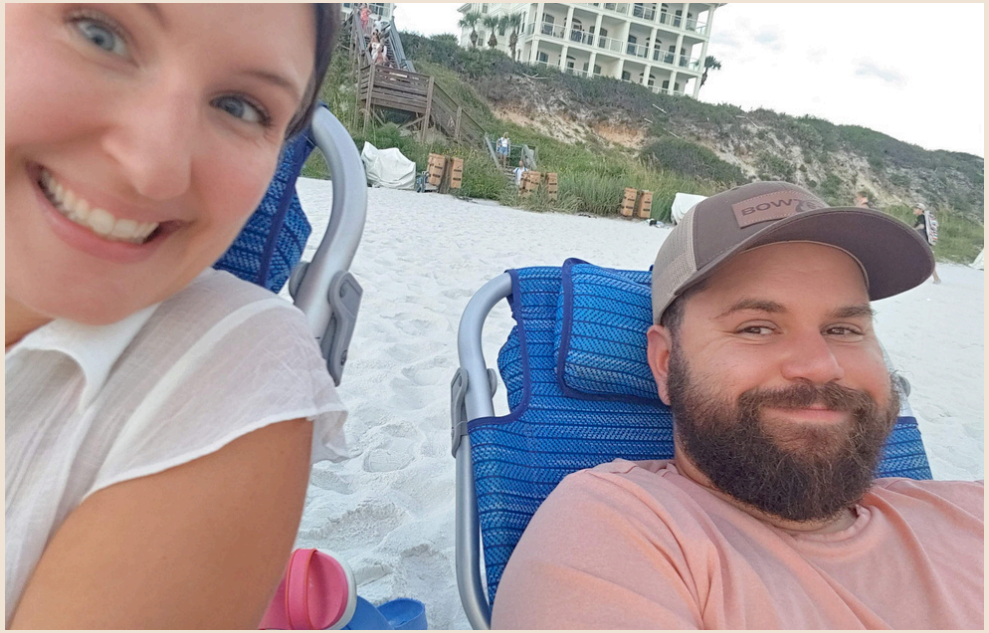

We always attend church each Sunday with Peter's parents and brother who live close by and have a weekly tradition of having lunch together as a family afterward.

We are patiently awaiting the day we welcome a child into our home and lives as we dream of doing all these things with our child and much more as they grow! We are excited to explore all the new family traditions and new activities our family will undertake as this child expresses their unique talents & interests throughout their life.

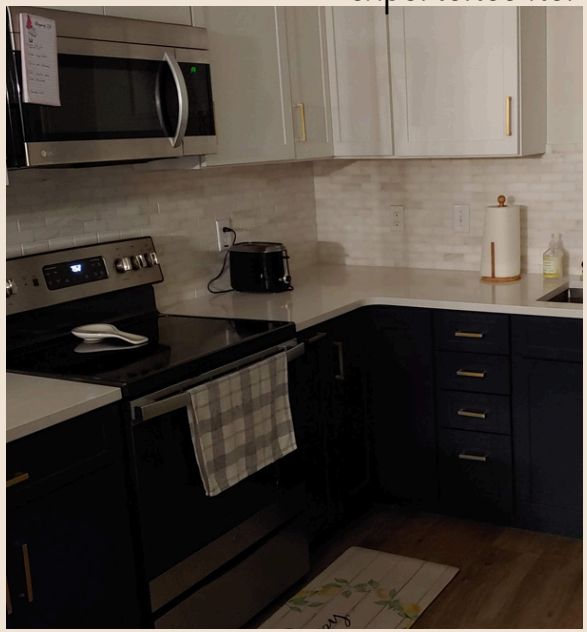

NO SMOKING

Our Home

We live in a quiet little neighborhood next to beach, golf, tennis and equestrian resorts. We experience a variety of wildlife and have access to many outdoor activities. Our community has a large swimming pool and we are only 5 mins away from the beach and a few quaint shops and restaurants. We have a cozy 3 bedroom, 2 bath home. Your child will have their own room complete with "Bucky", Peter's childhood rocking horse. The nursery has a very large window that lets bright sunshine in throughout the day and birds are frequently heard singing outside in the morning. Our favorite place in our home is our kitchen as it truly is the heart of our home. We spend so much time there cooking, baking, dancing, singing & debriefing from our day. Our favorite time to host our family is during Christmas and we look forward to the many more memories, laughter and life we will experience here in this home.

Our Family Dog - Oscar

Oscar is a 5 year-old long haired dachshund. He is very social, lovable and quite lazy... He enjoys watching the happenings of the neighborhood and basking in the sun.

Our Family Cat - Ava Kitty

Ava is 9 years old. She is a very smart & feisty kitty. She enjoys hunting lizards and bugs on the porch and her favorite foods are chicken and cream

Our Family and Friends

Kelly Jo's family lives quite a few States away. We keep in touch with visits throughout the year and many phone calls and texts. Her parents are the proud grandparents of 3 granddaughters and 1 grandson. They love their grandchildren and cannot wait for more!

Peter's parents and younger brother live in the same area we do. We see each other every week and love sharing meals, playing games, celebrating birthdays & Holidays together. Peter's parents are overjoyed to become grandparents for the 1st time and his brother is very exited to be an uncle!

THANK YOU!

For you created my inmost being; you knit me together in my mother's womb. I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made; your works are wonderful, I know that well.
Psalm 139:13-14

Thank you!

We hope this little glimpse into our family helps you get to know us and our lives together! If you should choose to lovingly place your child in our home, they will always know they are loved and treasured each and every day by you, by us and by God. We promise to protect, to care for, to guide, and to support your child to the best of our abilities. To teach them to love & know Jesus with all their heart. And to encourage them to grow and pursue the things they learn and enjoy as they navigate this beautiful life they are given. Your child will always be celebrated, encouraged, and will have endless stories read to them, songs sung to them and you will always be honored in our home as an important part of their story.

Love, Peter & Kelly Jo
